

Keith J. Chamberlin, MD, MBA

CURRICULUM VITAE

CAREER SYNOPSIS

MD degree in 1979 from Georgetown University. Completion of internship and residency training through US Army Medical Centers and affiliated teaching hospitals. Board Certified Anesthesiologist. Director, Cardiac Anesthesia, Marin General Hospital. Medical Director, PeriOperative Services, Marin General Hospital. Completion ASA CBA course. MBA from Auburn University, Alabama, emphasis on healthcare, governmental systems, and strategic planning.

MILITARY SERVICE / POST-DOCTORAL TRAINING

Reserve Status in the US Army from 1975 to 1979 while in medical school.

July 1979-June 1980: Entered active duty in 1979 through a rotating internship_ at William Beaumont Army Medical Center (500+ bed teaching hospital) in El Paso, Texas. Rank of Captain.

September 1980: Successfully completed Flight Surgeon Training at Fort Rucker, Alabama

September 1980 - June 1982: assigned as Flight Surgeon_ to the 11th Aviation Battalion (Combat) in Frankfurt, West Germany Specialized training and experience in health care aspects of aerodynamic flight. Awarded Army Commendation Medal.

July 1982 to June 1985: Resident in Anesthesiology_ at Letterman Army Medical Center in San Francisco, California. Rank of Major.

Specialized, Fellowship year (1984-1985) consisted of 6 months of Cardiac Anesthesia/Intensive Care and 6 months of research in Computer Applications in Anesthesia.

ICU training at Letterman AMC, Pediatric ICU at the University of California, San Francisco, and Cardiac Surgery/Surgical ICU at Stanford University.

POST-RESIDENCY POSITIONS

Staff Anesthesiologist - Letterman Army Medical Center (July 1985 to June 1987). Responsible for about 800 cases annually. Supervised medical students, residents, interns, CRNA's. Served as Director of Computer Operations for the Anesthesia Services Division at Letterman, developing and utilizing computer systems for OR applications. Completely automated the entire operation of the anesthesia service. Honorable discharge, June 1, 1987. Received Meritorious Service Medal.

Staff Anesthesiologist- The Surgery Center, Oakland, California, January, 1987 to April 1987. Part-time, (2-3 days/week) full privileges at Ambulatory Surgery Center.

Staff Anesthesiologist - Marin General Hospital and Ross General Hospital, Greenbrae, California, April 1987 to July 1987. Private practice.

Assistant Professor of Anesthesiology- Dartmouth-Hitchcock Medical Center and Dartmouth Medical School. July 1987 to January 1988. Director of Computer Operations for Anesthesiology Department. Responsible for re-design of anesthesia record and design and implementation of the anesthesia information management system. Supervised CRNA staff, residents, interns, and medical students.

Staff Anesthesiologist - Community Hospital of Chula Vista, Chula Vista, California. Full time private practice, including cardiac surgery and active acute pain management service. Responsible for design and implementation of O.R. scheduling and data management system. January 1988 to October 1989.

Vice Chairman, Dept. of Anesthesiology - Marin General Hospital. Full time private practice, including Intensive Care Unit patient management, acute post-operative pain management service, and obstetrical anesthesia. Recruited from previous position to become Director, Cardiac Anesthesia. Designed, equipped and implemented Cardiac Anesthesia service for Cardiac Surgery program, including TEE monitoring and examination. October 1989 to July 1993.

Director, Cardiac Anesthesia – August 1990 to present

Chairman, Dept. of Anesthesiology - Marin General Hospital. July 1993 to June 1995

Medical Director, Surgi-Center of Marin at MGH - January 1994 to present.

Medical Director, PeriOperative Services - January 2005 to present

Cardiac Anesthesiologist, Sutter San Rosa Hospital, June 2008 to present.

Founding Partner, Anesthesiology Consultants of Marin, Inc.

CEO, Chamberlin HealthCare Consulting Group, Inc.

Helping Businesses and Individuals Navigate the Medical Maze

Chair man of the Board and President

Meritage Accountable Care Organization (ACO)

Committees:

Finance Committee, Marin General Hospital

Finance Committee, Sonoma Valley Hospital

Finance Committee, Meritage Medical Network
O.R. Management, Marin General
Cardiovascular Services, Marin General
Board of Directors, Surgi-Center of Marin
SCIP, Marin General
Quality Improvement, Marin General
Infection Control, Sonoma Valley Hospital

AWARDS

Voted top anesthesiologist in SF North Bay by physician peers in SF Magazine, Jan 2005 – 2009.
Voted top anesthesiologist Consumer Checkbook, 2011
Voted Super Doc by Bay Area colleagues 2012, 2013

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS

American Society of Anesthesiologists (Delegate from CSA)
-Member, Practice Management Committee
California Society of Anesthesiologists,
-District Director
-Vice Chair, Legislative and Practice Affairs Division
-Chair, Practice Affairs
Society of Cardiovascular Anesthesiologists
International Anesthesia Research Society

Licensed: California

EDUCATION

1971-1975: B.S. Biology - Fairfield University, Fairfield, Connecticut.
1975-1979: M.D.- Georgetown University School of Medicine, Washington, D.C.

2008: Certificate in Business Administration, ASA

2009-2011:MBA, Auburn University, Alabama

PRESENTATIONS/PUBLICATIONS

Speaker at the Radiological Society of North America Meeting in Miami, Florida (April 1977, 1978) on "New Methods for Comparing Pre and Post Contrast Enhanced CT Scans" and "The Analysis of Contrast CT Scans: A Study of 50 Cases".

Co-author of "Subtraction Imaging Utilizing Pre and Post Contrast Enhanced CT Scanning", Journal of Computerized Tomography (February 1979).

Speaker at Texas Society of Anesthesiologists Practice Management Meeting
January, 2012 -Why Hospital CEOs Change Anesthesia Groups

CSA ONLINE FIRST Articles

It's a Jungle Here Also...

Human First, Physician Second

Annual Meeting – a view from the middle

Add On Cases- Where Safety and Convenience Collide

Someone Wants Your Practice (and they will take it with help from your CEO!)

CSA Callback

The Annual Meeting Ends, Now What? Views from 2013