

Samuel H. Wald, M.D.
Director, District 11

CSA: Educational Programs Division, Division of Legislative and Practice Affairs, Reference Committee, Task Force on Perioperative Education

ASA: Committee on Pediatric Anesthesia 2005-Present, ASA Alternate Delegate 2007-Present

ABA: Oral Examiner 2006-Present

Medical School: Albert Einstein College of Medicine 1990-1994

Pediatric Internship: Mount Sinai Hospital 1994-1995

Anesthesiology Residency: Massachusetts General Hospital 1995-1998

Pediatric Anesthesiology Fellowship: Children's Hospital, Boston 1998-1999

Professional Appointments: Anesthesiology Faculty at UCLA 1999-Present currently Associate Clinical Professor, Program Director 2002-2005, Director, Resident Education 2001-Present

UCLA Committees: Graduate Medical Education Committee, Co-Chair, Medication Event Committee

Research/Publications: Multiple projects resulting in publications in the areas of pediatric respiratory physiology, the pediatric difficult airway and pediatric anesthesiology.

Madisons Foundation: Founding Board Member and Chair of Medical/Education Committee that provides an online resource for families with children who have a rare life-threatening disease. 2000-Present (www.madisonsfoundation.org)

California Medical Board: Expert Reviewer